

Tips for Online Submission for Vacant Property and Land

Please complete the first submission screen with your (the broker's) name and email. This is the email a copy of the completed application will be sent to.

- The process begins with introductory instructions; read & click "Got it" to proceed.
- Signatures are not required on submitted application. The final application will be presented with the quote proposal, requesting insured and broker signatures.
- The red arrow will show you where questions need to be answered.
- When finished, click the blue "Submit Signature" on lower right corner.
- Once submitted, a copy of the application will be sent to the email provided. A download option is also available.
